

Declarations for Month of Kislev

Declare that your heart will be filled with faith in God, the God of miracles, and that you will celebrate His goodness in your life.

Declare that you will respond correctly to God's faithfulness and goodness in your life by giving of yourself in worship and obedience to Him.

Declare that you will pray for your spiritual leaders and that no division or offense will arise between you and the leaders in your life.

Declare that in this month of Tevet, you will see in the spiritual realm in a new way and that your vision will be focused to see things that you could not see before.

Declare that your good eye will see (seeing God as much more valuable than money) and that no evil eye will arise in you (coveting what others have).

Declare that new life will spring up and flow out of you, refreshing and ministering to those around you.

Declare that you will war in prayer when God calls you to do so on behalf of your inheritance. Declare that you will be stubborn like a goat in prayer and step on the serpent's head.

Declare that you will not sin by letting your anger control you.

Declare that you will take time to fast and cleanse your blood both physically and spiritually and ponder your path for the new year ahead.
