

Month of Elul Declarations:

I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine. (Song of Solomon 6:3) Declare that you are going to meet with God in a special way and experience a new level of intimacy with Him! Declare that you will put distractions aside and spend more time with Him.

The King is in the field! Declare that God is coming into your field - where you live, where you work, or wherever you are throughout the day. Declare that you will have a special encounter with Him!

A month to fix what is broken. Declare that God will tell you what is fixable and that He will give you the plan to repair what is broken. Declare that He will also show you what is not fixable, so you can start fresh and new.

The month to find your place in the company of the Lord. Declare that you will not let mistrust keep you from connecting with others in the body of Christ and getting picked off from the enemy. Declare that you will find your place in the corporate body of the Lord and stay connected!

The month to run to the tower of might! Declare that you will be infused with God's strength, that He will encompass you, give you rest, and cause your strength to multiply and abound. "The Name of the Lord is a strong tower, the righteous run to it and are safe." (Proverbs 18:10)

This is the Mother month – a month of nurturing. Declare that you will receive nurturing, which can include tweaking and correcting, from those that God is speaking through in your life. Declare that you will be obedient to nurture whoever God tells you to.

Elul is the month of Gad, which means good fortune! Declare that you will have an expectation of good fortune throughout the entire month! Declare that rewards will begin to manifest in your life according to what you have done. Declare that you will think reward, declare this is a time of reward, and declare that you expect reward!
