

Declarations for Month of Kislev

Declare that you are breaking out of old cycles. No destructive cycle will hold you in captivity. Declare that God is setting you FREE!

Declare that God is giving you a second chance and you will confront and overcome those things that defeated you in the past.

Declare that you have full confidence and trust in God with His plans for your life, especially those things that you are uncertain about and you don't understand.

Declare that you will be like the archer. If you need to cut your losses and move on, you will!

Declare that God is giving you war strategies and prophetic revelation to fight empires and cultures in the spirit realm!

Declare that you will pay attention to any dreams that God gives you this month and that you will receive understanding of the dream.

Declare that you will deal with any issues that are disrupting your sleep. Declare Psalm 127:2 over your sleep each night.

Declare that in this month of Chanukah, you will proclaim that you serve the God of miracles! Declare that you will let your light shine brightly in the darkness.

Declare that in this month of the womb that the river of God will flow out from your innermost being.

Declare that you will come into your true identity, even if you have been branded with an identity that God did not choose for you.

Declare that God will set a guard over your mouth because your words are forming your new identity.

Declare that your confession this month will be II Timothy 1:7 – God has not given you a spirit of fear, but of power, love and a sound mind.
