

Month of Tishrei Declarations

1. Declare that you will awaken and come out of any apathy, lethargy or indifference towards the things of God.
2. Declare that God will reveal to you if you have any bitterness in your heart and that you will not carry it into the new year.
3. Declare that during the Ten Days of Awe you will diligently seek God, listen for His voice, and be obedient to confess any sin that He shows you.
4. Declare that on the Day of Atonement you will spend time with God and confess your sins before Him, putting them under His blood.
5. Declare that during the Feast of Tabernacles you will spend time with God, feasting in His presence and declaring His goodness.
6. Declare that you will press into God and touch the hem of His garment and that His healing power will flow into you.
7. Declare that God will weigh the deeds of man and that His righteous judgement will be released this month, especially in our justice system.
8. Declare that anything that has been scattered in your life will return to you.
9. Declare that you will be fruitful and multiply just as Ephraim did.
10. Declare that God can bring you into a place to receive an unexpected blessing like Ephraim.
